Natural Resource Abundance, Growth, and Diversification in the Middle East and North Africa

Editors: Ndiame' Diop, Daniela Marotta and Jaime de Melo
Published: September 2012   Pages: 224

Complete Book PDF (2.34 MB) | View Chapters | View Supplemental Material

Abstract:

MENA is one of the richest regions in the world in terms of natural resources: it holds more than 60 percent of the world's proven oil reserves, mostly located in the Gulf region, and nearly half of gas reserves. Oil represents 80-85 percent of merchandise exports in the region, making it highly depending on fluctuations in international prices. A long strand of economic literature has suggested that such dependence may hurt a country's growth prospects and the scope for job creation by
